FAQs:

- What about cleaning? Should parishes maintain the rigorous cleaning regimes adopted during the pandemic to date?

Resp: Cleaning regimes may revert to pre-pandemic levels of cleaning.

- What about the sign of peace?

Resp: The sign of peace may be reintroduced but it should be made clear that some people may not be willing to have physical contact at this time. In which case a bow would be appropriate.

Testimonials from Young Adults from the Ireland Pilgrimage

Many thanks to Charlene and Luca, under the guidance of Father Robert for organising this week of retreat and pilgrimage. For me it made possible many opportunities of personal spiritual growth and enlightenment through private prayer, while also growing in community with other young Catholics through common prayer and times of joy shared together, not without hardships, changes of plans and unforeseen circumstances which turned out to be all for the greater good, more fruit bearing and advantageous. Anonymous.

An amazing pilgrimage experience with a great group of friends.

We are a random bunch who are united in faith. New members welcome. John-Paul

I am Pierre from Madagascar. I am student at the University of Stirling and part of Saint Mary's parishioners. I really appreciate the organisation of the pilgrimage for young adults for many reasons that I will mention few of them. First of all, it was an opportunity for me to refresh my life after a fast and hard study at the University. While I was always busy with the study, this pilgrimage helped me to renew my faith and improve my relationship with God, my creator. Secondly, the trip allowed me to escape from my daily routine so that I can reflect about my future. Before the pilgrimage, I had concerns about my work back in my country. Praying and listening to the Holy Spirit allowed me to write as much solutions and resolutions to face the challenges and obstacles for my work. I feel confident now to embrace my new career just after my study. Finally, the pilgrimage was an opportunity for me to learn from others about the way we live faith and follow Jesus's path. The testimonies at Cenacolo, the kindness of the family who homed us, the devotions of all religious and priest who supported us during this time are an unforgettable moment for me. All of these gave me hope that Jesus is working and will never let down his Church. Moreover, the young adult group helped me to grow in faith together and share our life to be more fruitful. Thank you. Pierre

As a non-baptised member of the young adults group exploring faith, this pilgrimage was an absolute delight to be part of. The structure of the trip was very well planned, we had a very real and raw experience of Ireland, and of Faith itself. We had just enough of the history, and visiting the historic landmarks and towns to give a real sense of how our saints had lived and suffered. We met some wonderful priests and nuns and families along the way, all very welcoming and humble. Knock in particular was a super warm and inspiring little town. Well worth the visit and providence certainly prevailed for us. We all came home full of stories, smiles and most importantly peace. Lou

Having never been to Ireland before, let alone on a pilgrimage there, this trip has been an incredible experience! Aside from getting to experience beautiful Holy places such as Knock and challenges such as climbing Croagh Patrick, spending time with a great, devout group of people and seeing the generosity and warmth which our hosts showed us has really inspired me to follow their examples and live my own faith more devoutly! I'm incredibly grateful for the opportunity to go on this pilgrimage, and feel like it has made a real difference in the way I see myself in relation to God and other people for the better. Harry

This Pilgrimage was a chance for repentance, renewal and for me to really prove my Faith which I profess daily. It was a wonderful experience full of Grace and Blessings. We were able to visit so many amazing religious and cultural sites along with the immense gift of daily Mass, confessions, formative talks and fun recreational activities. Every Priest, religious sister and fellow faithful we met along the way, were all perfect example of what Our Lord meant when He asks each of us to take up our Cross and follow Him, filled with joy and inflamed with the Love of Christ. We need more young people to be able to have this chance to deepen their Faith and Follow Christ, who is our ultimate goal. Sophie
